

Personal Computer Acceptable Use Policy

Students may bring personal computers to Chinquapin for their academic work. This includes word processors, laptops, notebooks, and desktop PCs. In order to protect the students, faculty, and school, all students who bring computers must follow the guidelines listed here. If you have questions, see the Director of Technology.

- All students who bring PCs must register with the Director of Technology by filling out the form below and turning in the computer for a security inspection.
- The students are responsible for the security and care of their own computers. The school is not liable for theft, loss, or damage to computers on school grounds or during school-related activities.

Students may NOT use their computers:

- During class or study hall without teacher permission
- To play games, watch movies, or for any other non-academic purpose
- To copy or store data or software found on Chinquapin computer systems other than your own
- To hack or otherwise affect Chinquapin computer resources
- To create, store, or distribute data or software which is disrespectful, offense, hateful, or suggests violence towards any person, sex, ethnic group, or race
- To conduct business transactions

Violations to the above policy will result in loss of privileges. The computer will be confiscated and returned at the end of the week. Students will be asked not to bring the computer back to campus. If there is a 2nd violation, a $25 fine will have to be paid to get the equipment back.
